

What is your next step?

If this conference and season is to be more than simply words, then we each need to decide what our next step is.

First and foremost, we would encourage you to begin with prayer - what is God saying? As you ask for His leading, what comes to mind or stirs in your heart? Pray until something does, even with lots of little prayers spread over a number of days or weeks. Some prayers are overleaf to aid you.

As you begin to pray, maybe ask these questions to the Lord too:

- o Could your Fellowship Group or Book Group somehow become more missional and engage with a local need together?
- o Could an area of ministry (e.g. Guild, Friendship Plus, Art Group) explore how to engage with a local need and bring God's love there?

- o Do you need to step into a new area of service? Might you need to step down from something else to make space?

- o As you read and pray over the "We're all in this together" card, is there something you do there which you feel needs to change or be paused/dropped, or is there something missing you could help make happen?

Explore with the Lord and then one another how we can move beyond our buildings to live our faith in the community a little more.

Prayers for Mission

Lord Jesus Christ, You stretched out Your arms of love on the hard wood of the cross that everyone might come within the reach of Your saving embrace: So clothe us in Your Spirit that we, reaching forth our hands in love, may bring those who do not know You to the knowledge and love of You; for the honour of Your Name. Amen.

— Bishop Charles Henry Brent, 1907

Lord, I want to see You glorified in the nations. I choose today to start with my neighbours. Who can I pray for? Recommend the Bible to? Invite to church? Bring someone to mind today, or to cross my path, and give me the courage to join You in Your transforming, restorative work in their life. Amen.
