Weddings at Upper Braes Parish Church

We welcome couples to consider having their wedding ceremony within one of the ministry centres of the Upper Braes Parish Church if you would like a Christian ceremony. Membership of a church is not required.

Interested?

In the first instance, please contact our Minister via email or phone (details above) to arrange an initial “get to know you” meeting.

This leaflet gives you a very brief overview of practical details and options.

Venue

The Brightons Ministry Centre is available with seating between 160 and 200 downstairs and a further 100 people upstairs. The Slamannan Ministry Centre seats up 80 downstairs only. Disabled access available with space for wheelchairs. Full toilet facilities available. Halls at Brightons Ministry Centre can be booked for use by outside caterers.
